

Blessed be my Rock, Blessed be my Saviour

28 November 1996, Vassula prays:

Blessed be my Rock,
Blessed be my Saviour,
Blessed be His Sacred Heart,
this Heart that displays its Love for all mankind, This Heart which is more desirable than the finest gold, because the treasures¹ it contains are sweeter than honey;
Blessed be His Sacred Heart,
this Heart that lifted me and formed me, O Lord, come and display to mankind Your marvels, come and display Your marvellous kindness!

1. "Treasures" stand for: "the Words of God".
