

Grant, Lord, that everything You say be done

26 September 1991, Vassula prays:

Grant, Lord,

that everything You say, be done.

Lower my head, lower me and lower my voice.

I do not want to appear empty handed in Your Presence;
no, I do not want to end up in Your Presence with empty hands.

And those human thoughts my nature finds natural,
uproot them and burn each one of them.