

Lord forgive us, for we have really failed

13 August 1991, Vassula prays:

Lord, forgive us,
for we have really failed to appreciate Your Great Love, we failed to appreciate Your Great Sacrifice, we failed to love and stay united;
we keep repeating our errors continuously.

O Lord Jesus,
we need desperately Your help to come back to our senses.

Come and rescue us,
the garland of divinity has fallen from our heads;
look on us and see our wretchedness, our pitiful degradation, our atrophy to what is holy.

Make us come back to You,
by coming to visit each one of us,
as You have visited me,
visit the rest of Your children and show them Your Heart.
