

My God, is good to me

20 April 1992, Vassula prays:

My God is good to me,
a stronghold when I am oppressed and calumniated,
a stronghold when times are hard.

My God is my protective Shield.

Satan may sharpen his sword
or may bend his bow and take aim on me,
but my God, my Abba, ever so Tender,
will be present and will make the devil flee.
