

My King, lead every soul to the Truth

23 November 1989, Vassula prays:

"My King,
lead every soul to the Truth, that they may glorify You around one single Tabernacle, let those who hear and hear again, but not understand, understand this time, and those that see and see again, but not perceive, perceive this time, entering into Your Mystery, soften their heart so that they may understand with their heart and not their mind and thus be converted and healed by You, praising You my King.
Amen."
