

My Lord and my God, You are truly most Beautiful

20 October 1998, Vassula prays:

My Lord and my God,
You are truly most Beautiful, and immersed in Your Beauty You are Divine and Pure; how am I and all the others not to fall in love with Your Sweetness?
Gracefulness is a dew upon Your Lips, and in Your majesty and splendour You have blessed us, courted us, favoured us and covered us with innumerable gifts, not only to resemble Your angels, but to resemble You;
Your Word is like a brocade which You have clothed me with, adorning my soul for Your majesty; and all of this You have done with the greatest delight, and with no thought that You might have been cheapening Your Sceptre of Your kingship!
God has anointed me
