

O Lord, You who stand among us

21 December 1992, the Lord gives the prayer:

O Lord,
You who stand among us,
shepherd us;
set Your Royal Throne
in the middle of Your vine and give us Your orders; O Holy Lord of all holiness purify us so that we preserve the integrity of Your House and Your vine, lovingly intervene and protect what Your right Hand cultivated; we have failed You, but we know, we believe and we trust, that You will open wide Your Gateway, to let the River of Life flow on Your vine, and once more from it will sprout branches that will bear fruit and become a royal vine, more kingly than ever before because Your Holy Spirit, the giver of Life, will overshadow it;
amen
